Chapter 393: The Essence of Existence

The Unrivaled Sovereign

With the annihilation of the Watchers Beyond Time, the multiverse now stood at the mercy of Sung Jin-Woo. His evolution had reached unprecedented heights, beyond any conceivable limit. The very essence of the Watchers of Time, Space, Creation, and Destruction had been absorbed into him, further strengthening his already unfathomable power. The multiverse, once an infinite expanse of possibility, was now under the dominion of a single entity—the True Absolute One.

From his throne in the True Absolute One Domain Realm, Sung Jin-Woo looked out across the infinite timelines and realities. The multiverse no longer seemed like a collection of separate universes, each with its own rules and fate. Now, they all flowed into one seamless, interconnected existence, all guided by his will. There were no forces that could challenge his reign. There were no beings that could rival him.

Sung Jin-Woo had become the core of existence itself. Time, space, life, and death were his to control. He could weave the threads of the multiverse as easily as one would thread a needle. No barrier could contain him, no force could oppose him, and no being could challenge his supremacy.

The Multiverse in His Grasp

As the True Absolute One, Sung Jin-Woo was not merely a ruler of the multiverse—he was the multiverse. His essence intertwined with every dimension, every timeline, and every entity within his dominion. He could see the past, the present, and the future simultaneously, and his presence reached every corner of existence. The laws of the multiverse bent to his will, and the flow of time itself obeyed his command.

Within the True Absolute One Domain Realm, Sung Jin-Woo could feel the pulse of the cosmos. The multiverse, in its infinite complexity, was now a canvas upon which he could paint his desires. Every flicker of light, every particle of energy, and every moment in time was under his control.

He stood as the Sovereign of All, the central point of existence, from which everything emanated and to which everything returned.

The Divine Triad

While Sung Jin-Woo was the center of all, the other members of the Divine Triad—Ashborn and Sung Su-Ho—were not far behind. Their realms, the True Celestial Realm and the True Dragon God Realm, were also not bound by the laws of time and space. These realms too had grown beyond the scope of the multiverse, expanding to infinite sizes, as vast and limitless as the power they contained.

Ashborn, the True Celestial Being, stood as the ruler of his own domain, his wings now numbering in the millions. His very presence radiated a sense of purity, of divine light that illuminated the darkest corners of the cosmos. His power was unmatched in its grace, and his domain was a sanctuary of creation.

Sung Su-Ho, the True Dragon God, held dominion over his realm of True Dragon God Realm, where the power of the primordial dragons pulsed through the very fabric of reality. His wings, more massive than ever, stretched across the endless skies of his realm, and his power was a force of nature that reshaped the multiverse.

Together, the Divine Triad stood as the rulers of all existence. Their collective power was beyond measure, and their influence reached to the furthest corners of the multiverse, where even the most ancient beings feared to tread.

The New Era

With the Watchers Beyond Time annihilated, and the multiverse fully under the reign of the True Absolute One, a new era began. The Heavenly Realm Universe, now under the sovereign rule of Sung Jin-Woo and the Divine Triad, was a place of perfect balance. All things existed in harmony, governed by the will of the True Absolute One. There were no conflicts, no wars, no threats to the peace that now enveloped the cosmos.

The Divine Triad continued to observe their subjects, each divine being contributing to the greater harmony of the multiverse. Sung Jin-Woo, as the central figure of existence, continued to expand his knowledge, shaping the multiverse to suit his will. His power grew ever greater, as did his understanding of the infinite complexities of reality.

But with no enemies left to conquer, no challenges left to overcome, a sense of stillness began to take hold. The multiverse, under the absolute rule of the True Absolute One, had entered an age of peace.

A New Challenge

Yet, even in this peaceful reign, Sung Jin-Woo knew that there would always be something to strive for, something beyond even the limits of his power. A part of him, the part that had once craved strength, the part that had fought tooth and nail to reach this point, wondered what lay beyond this pinnacle. What could be the next challenge, the next step for a being who had already ascended to the top of existence?

But for now, Sung Jin-Woo was content. He had achieved everything he had set out to accomplish. The True Absolute One had brought about the ultimate peace, and all was under his rule.

The Divine Triad would continue to watch over their realms. The future was theirs to shape.

To Be Continued...